

Welcome! You are in for a great blessing by attending the CUFI DC Summit. I cannot fully express how wonderful the CUFI Summit always is each year.

I'm Pastor Doug Joseph, your group leader.

I serve as WV State Coordinator for Christians United For Israel (CUFI).

Most of you know me, but just in case you don't, here is my contact info:

Pastor D. Joseph cell: 304-629-1196
Pastor D. Joseph email: pastor@cac.us.com

Please add my contact info to your phone, and realize I have attempted to take note of yours.

On the next pages are some important locations / addresses, and notes / information. Please keep these pages with you if possible, or snap photos into your phone. Thank you!

Our group's depart/return location:

Riverside Ministries
4388 Dents Run Blvd, Morgantown, WV 26501

On Sunday, July 7, we will board the bus at about 3:00 pm at Riverside Ministries in Morgantown, WV. It should be safe for you to leave your car at the church parking lot while we are gone.

Our group's second "pickup" & "drop-off" location:

Buffalo Wild Wings Restaurant
12107 Winchester Rd SW, La Vale, MD 21502

On Sunday, July 7, we offer to do a pickup at Buffalo Wild Wings Restaurant in Lavale, MD, between about 4:00 to 4:30 pm. Usually this is a drop-off / pickup only, as opposed to leaving one's car at the restaurant parking lot the whole time. Please let Pastor Doug Joseph know if you plan to catch the bus there.

Our group hotel location / info for Sun. & Mon. nights:

Best Western Mount Vernon/Ft. Belvoir.

8751 Richmond Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22309

703-360-1300 · hotelalexandriavirginia.com · free breakfast, free Wi-Fi

NOTE: If you get separated from the group while you are away from the hotel, and you miss the bus or otherwise need to get back there on your own, having the above info will prove helpful! Taxis are expensive, so it's best to not miss the bus. We will help you. 😊

Event venue for CUFI DC Summit

Walter E. Washington Convention Center

801 Mt Vernon Pl NW, Washington, DC 20001

A box lunch is provided for you on Monday! Otherwise, some fast food shops are in walking distance outside the convention center. There the prices are decent. We know of a Subway that is nearby, and a Sbarro's pizza place. Be aware that while food is available inside the convention center, that food is pricey.

Security will be tight, so be ready with your badge shown at all entrances.

By or upon our check-in on Monday, you will have received your Summit badge & lanyard. Do not lose it or you will face some inconvenience!

A major highlight is the "Night To Honor Israel" on Monday evening.

Re: Special Group Seating Details for "Night To Honor Israel" (NTHI)

You are perhaps already aware that there is another nice advantage to being part of our group, besides the nice bus, awesome hotel deal, and included official event registration: special group seating for the "Night To Honor Israel" (NTHI) on Monday evening. As part of our group, you have the privilege of being escorted to reserved seating through a special entrance for the event. Those who have attended before, without the benefit of this privilege, realize how nice this is by comparison.

Here are important notes regarding Monday evening:

Unless you hear differently from Pastor Doug Joseph, please go to the convention center's information booth around 5:45 pm, after your dinner break.

5:45 PM - 6:00 PM:

WV Bus Group: go to Information Booth, & meet up with our group. If we're not there, please ask if there's a "group holding area."

6:00 PM:

WV Bus Group: be at the Info Booth / Group Holding Area. Escorting of groups should begin by this time or shortly after!

The big event technically starts at 7:30pm, but it is usually a packed house with folks seated well in advance. Pastor Doug Joseph will be there as your host to make sure our group is gathered and ready to be escorted to our reserved group seating area in the main hall for the Night To Honor Israel event. The location for the main event should be HALL D. There will be a large seating area for "RESERVED GROUPS" — we can sit together in that section.

Thank you again for joining us in standing for Israel! I look forward to helping you celebrate our great relationship with Israel.
